

Entry Form Young Writer's Celebration April 11th, 2018

- Young Writer's Celebration is for students in grades K-12. Selected students are invited to celebrate their writing at a free after school event at John Adams Academy from 4:30-5:30 on Wednesday, April 11, 2018.
- We kick off the event celebrating our young writers with an award presentation for all participants. We will have small breakout sessions for students to share some of their writing with other authors in their age group.
- Teachers are invited to submit the name of 1 or 2 students they feel have written an exceptional piece of writing during this school year. We welcome all styles of writing and we do not have specific requirements or restrictions
- (Due to space constraints and demand we must limit our entries to the first 75 received. Submit your entries early to secure your spots. We will accept entries until March 3rd only.
- Students should bring their writing to the event.
- Invitations will be sent to the teacher by the end of the month.. One invitation is for the teacher and one invitation is for the teacher to print out and give to the student and family, inviting them to attend the celebration on April 11th.
