

Information Page Young Authors' Celebration March 19, 2020

- The Young Authors' Celebration is for students in grades K-12. Nominated students are invited to celebrate their writing at a free after school event at Lincoln Crossing Elementary School from 4:30-6:30 on Thursday, March 19, 2020.
- A teacher may nominate up to 2 students from his/her class.
- We kick off the event with an award presentation for all of the Young Authors. We will then hear author Jeff Savage share his writing story. Finally, we will have small breakout sessions during which the Honored Authors will have the chance to share their writing with other authors in their age group. Older students will be asked to share a portion of their writing.
- Due to space constraints and demand, we must limit our entries to the first 75 received. Submit your entries early to secure your spots. We will accept entries until March 12th only.
- Students should bring their writing to the event.
- Student invitations will be sent to teachers upon receipt of their student's name. Teachers are asked to print the invitation and provide it to the student to be honored and their family, inviting them to attend the celebration on March 19th.
