

Meet the Instructors:

Steve Dunn, M.Ed., has been a classroom teacher, a district resource teacher, vice principal, and principal of a low income school. In addition, he has been a national staff developer for the last fifteen years, facilitating changes of best literacy practices through professional development, coaching coaches, administrative walkthroughs, and teaching demonstration lessons in the classroom for teachers to observe.

Dr. Klein is a professor emerita of reading education at CSU San Bernardino where she was the Chair of the Department of Elementary and Bilingual Education. A former president of the California Reading Association, she also served on the International Literacy Association's Board of Directors. Currently, she is the director of a center focused on early literacy intervention at Saint Mary's College of California. She also serves as a reviewer for the professional journal The Reading Teacher.

Joanne Devine, M.Ed., is a past president of the California Reading Association. A passionate classroom teacher for 40 years, Joanne participated in the evaluation of literacy programs for California and worked as a Teacher-Coach for CSU-Sacramento. She currently works as a literacy consultant.

Jody Anderson, M.Ed. is the current Vice-President of the California Reading Association, a multiple past president of the Placer Area Reading Council and has served as a Board member for the California Young Reader Medal Award. A classroom teacher for over 30 years, Jody now shares her knowledge and passion for literacy instruction through professional development workshops.

Lori Oczkus is a literacy coach, author, and popular speaker across the United States. Tens of thousands of teachers have attended her motivating, fast paced workshops and read her practical, research-based professional books. Lori has extensive experience as a bilingual elementary teacher, intervention specialist working with struggling readers, and staff developer and literacy coach. She works with students every week in classrooms and really knows the challenges that teachers face in teaching students to read!

Judy Lynch, M.Ed., is a past president of the Placer Area Reading Council. A teacher in the Sacramento area for over 40 years, Judy has worked as a classroom teacher, Reading Specialist, Title 1 Teacher, Intervention Specialist, English Learner Support Teacher, and a Teacher Coach. She taught at CSU-Sacramento and has authored six books for Scholastic. Currently, Judy works as a Literacy Coach and Consultant throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Betsy Stenklyft, M.Ed., is the current president of the Placer Area Reading Council and has served on the Board of Directors of the California Reading Association. A classroom teacher for 40 years, she also taught in the School of Education graduate program at CSU-Sacramento. Betsy currently is a Reading Specialist at the K-6 level and works as a literacy consultant..
